

United Methodist Women's Book Club

All women of the church are invited to join the UMW Book Club or just attend one meeting where a book of interest is being discussed. At our next meeting we will be discussing A.J. Jacobs' book Year of Living Biblically: One Man's Humble Quest to Follow the Bible as Literally as Possible.

"Raised in a secular family but increasingly interested in the relevance of faith in our modern world, A.J. Jacobs decides to dive in headfirst and attempt to obey the Bible as literally as possible for one full year. He vows to follow the Ten Commandments, to be fruitful and multiply, to love his neighbor. But also to obey the hundreds of less publicized rules: to avoid wearing clothes made of mixed fibers; to play a ten-string harp; to stone adulterers.

The resulting spiritual journey is at once funny and profound, reverent and irreverent, personal and universal and will make you see history's most influential book with new eyes."

The UMW Book Club will be discussing this thought-provoking memoir at our next meeting on September 29 in the home of Norma Ewing. Come join us for a covered dish picnic and book swap at 6:00 or book discussion at 7:00.
